Translator's Introduction

All Praise and thanks are due to Allah. I testify that Muhammad ﷺ is the Servant and Messenger of Allah. May the peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, his household, his Companions and all those who follow them in righteousness until the Day of Reckoning.

First of all, many thanks to our sister in Islam Selma Cook who revised this work.

Second, I present this translation for non-Arab Muslims who are unable to understand the meaning in Arabic. This will help them to understand the meaning of these supplications which are taken from the Qur'an and the Prophet's traditions. This will also help them to achieve an improved state in their worship of Allah. However, dear non-Arab, Muslim reader, you should endeavor to learn the original text in Arabic for that will be much better and more beneficial.

I did my best to reach the nearest meaning which is in conformity with the Qur'an and the Prophet's traditions. I ask Allah to forgive me if I err and protect the people from my errors. Following are some of the frequently used acronyms in the translation:

() The Lord of Glory and Majesty
i.e. Allah

(ﷺ) May the blessings and peace of Allah be upon Muhammad.

(ﷺ) May Allah be pleased with him

(ﷺ) May Allah be pleased with them

(ﷺ) May Allah be pleased with both

Some of the symbols used in the transliteration of Arabic words i.e. representing them as they are pronounced in Arabic:

Any comments or suggestions for improving the translation are most welcome. May Allah guide us all.

يَعْمَلُونَ﴾

“And (all) the Most Beautiful Names belong to Allâh, so call on Him by them, and leave the company of those who belie or deny (or utter impious speech against) His Names. They will be requited for what they used to do.”

Introduction

All Praise and thanks are due to Allâh, from whom we seek help and forgiveness. We seek refuge from the evil of ourselves and the evil consequences of our deeds. Whoever Allâh guides, cannot be led astray, and whomever He leads astray, none can guide him. I bear witness that none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh, who has no partner. Likewise, I testify that Muhammad is the Servant and the Messenger of Allâh. May the peace and blessings of Allâh be upon him, his household, his Companions and all those who follow them in righteousness until the Day of Reckoning.

This is a summary of my book “Adh-Dhikr Wad-Dû‘â’ wal-‘ilâj bi-Ruqa min Al-Kitâb Was-Sunnah” (Remembrance & Invocation) and (Qur’ânic Recitation & Prophetic Invocations over the Patient). I have summarized the chapter of invocation in order to be of benefit to the reader, and I added some invocations and useful information. So I ask Allâh by His Magnificent Names and His lofty Attributes to make this work done for His sake. He is the Patron for all things and the Most Powerful. And may Allâh send His blessings and peace upon Muḥammad, all his household and his Companions.

The Merit of Invocation

Allâh ﷻ says:

﴿ وَقَالَ رَبُّكُمْ ادْعُونِي أَسْتَجِبْ لَكُمْ إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَسْتَكْبِرُونَ عَنْ عِبَادَتِي سَيَدْخُلُونَ جَهَنَّمَ دَاخِرِينَ ﴾ .

“And your Lord said: “Invoke Me, and ask Me for anything) I will respond to your (invocation). Verily! Those who scorn My worship (i.e. do not invoke Me, and do not believe in My Oneness,) they will surely enter Hell in humiliation!” (Ghâfir, 60)

Allâh ﷻ also says:

﴿ وَإِذَا سَأَلَكَ عِبَادِي عَنِّي فَإِنِّي قَرِيبٌ أُجِيبُ

دَعْوَةَ الدَّاعِ إِذَا دَعَانِ فَلْيَسْتَجِيبُوا لِي وَلْيُؤْمِنُوا بِي
لَعَلَّهُمْ يَرْشُدُونَ ﴿١٨٦﴾

“And when My slaves ask you (O Muhammad ﷺ) concerning Me, then (answer them), I am indeed near (to them by My Knowledge). I respond to the invocations of the supplicant when he calls on Me (without any mediator or intercessor). So let them obey Me and believe in Me, so that they may be led aright.” (Al-Baqarah, 186)

The Prophet ﷺ also said, “Invocation is worship. Your Lord said:

﴿ اَدْعُونِي اَسْتَجِبْ لَكُمْ ﴾

“Invoke Me, I will respond to your (invocation).” (Ghâfir: 60)⁽¹⁾

The Prophet ﷺ also said, “Allâh is Ever Generous and shy if a servant raises his hands to Him (invoke), to return them vacant.”⁽²⁾

The Prophet ﷺ also said, “No Muslim invokes with an invocation, as long as this invocation is not a bad deed or to cut off one of his relatives, but Allâh gives him one of the following three: He promptly

Remedy by Recitation of Invocations over a Patient from the Qur'ân and *Sunnah

by

Sa'eed Ibn 'Ali Ibn Wahf Al-Qahtâni

Translated by

Khalifa Ezzat Abû Zeid

Introduction

The importance of seeking a cure with the Qur'ân and Sunnah

All Praise is due to Allâh. We praise Him, and seek His help and forgiveness. We seek refuge with Allâh from the evil of ourselves and from our bad deeds. Indeed, whoever Allâh guides cannot be led astray and he whom He leaves to stray none can guide. And I bear witness that there is none worthy to be worshiped except Allâh, and I bear witness that Muḥammad is His servant and His Messenger. May the blessings and peace of Allâh be upon him, all his household, Companions and those who follow in his footsteps until the Day of Judgment.

There is no doubt that seeking a remedy with the Noble Qur'ân and the authentic Prophetic traditions is useful and leads to a complete recovery. Allâh ﷻ says:

﴿ قُلْ هُوَ لِلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا هُدًى وَشِفَاءٌ ﴾

“Say: It is for those who believe, a guide and a healing)” (Fussilat, 44)

﴿ وَنُنزِّلُ مِنَ الْقُرْءَانِ مَا هُوَ شِفَاءٌ وَرَحْمَةٌ لِّلْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴾

“And We send down from the Qur'ân that which is a healing and a mercy to those who believe (in Islâmic Monotheism and act on it)” (Al-Isrâ': 82)

'from' here means the whole Qur'ân, so the whole Qur'ân is a remedy as mentioned in the verse 1. Allâh ﷻ says:

﴿ يَأْتِيهَا النَّاسُ قَدْ جَاءَتْكُمْ مَوْعِظَةٌ مِّن رَّبِّكُمْ وَشِفَاءٌ لِّمَا فِي الصُّدُورِ وَهُدًى وَرَحْمَةٌ لِّلْمُؤْمِنِينَ ﴾

“O mankind! There has come to you a good advice from your Lord (i.e. the Qur'ân, enjoining all that is good and forbidding all that is evil), and a healing for that in your breasts, - a guidance and a mercy (explaining lawful and unlawful things) for the believers.” (Yûnus, 57).

So the Qur'ân is the complete remedy for all the diseases of the hearts and bodies and also from the diseases of this world and the Hereafter. But not everyone succeeds in obtaining a cure with the Qur'ân. If the patient cures his disease with sincerity and belief, complete acceptance, decisive conviction and applying all the conditions, the disease will not continue forever. How can a disease resist the words of the Lord of the Heavens and the earth? If these words were revealed upon the mountains or upon the earth, these mountains would split and the earth would be rent asunder. So there is no disease of the bodies and hearts, except that the Qur'ân has the way to cure it, and its causes and it is the means to find protection for he whom Allâh granted comprehension of these verses. Allâh ﷻ mentions the diseases of the hearts and bodies as well as their remedy in the Qur'ân.

The diseases of the hearts are divided into two categories:

1. The diseases of suspicion and doubt.
2. The diseases of desire. Allâh ﷻ mentions the diseases of the hearts in detail, along with their causes and their cure, saying:

﴿أُولَئِكَ يَكْفِيهِمْ أَنَّا أَنْزَلْنَا عَلَيْكَ الْكِتَابَ يُتْلَىٰ عَلَيْهِمْ آيَاتُ فِي ذَٰلِكَ لَرَحْمَةً وَذِكْرَىٰ لِقَوْمٍ

“Is it not sufficient for them that We have sent down to you the Book (the Qur’ân) which is recited to them? Verily, herein is mercy and a reminder (or an admonition) for a people who believe.” (Al-‘Ankabût, 51)

The great scholar Ibn Al-Qayyim رحمته الله said, ‘He who the Qur’ân did not cure, Allâh may never cure him. And he who the Qur’ân did not suffice, Allâh may never suffice him.’⁽¹⁾

The Qur’ân also refers to the principles, and rules to cure other diseases of the body. Therefore their principles of obtaining a remedy from the diseases of the body , which are gathered in the Qur'ân, are three: conservation of health, keeping away from harm and vomiting harmful substances.⁽¹⁾

(1) See Zâd Al-Ma’âd 4/6 4/352.

If the Muslim is consistent in seeking a cure with the Qur'ân, he will find a wonderful effect and a fast cure. The great Imam Ibn Al- Qayyim رحمته الله said, "I was sick for a long time when I was in Makkah, and I did not find a doctor or a remedy. So I always sought a cure with the Opening Sûrat (al-Fâtiḥah), then I found a great effect on my illness, as I took a glass of Zamzam water and recited the Opening Sûrat on it, then I drunk it, and I did it several times. I found my illness had completely subsided. Subsequently, I used to cure myself with this method from any illness, and I found it very useful. I also prescribed it for those who suffered from any pain, and then a lot of them would be cured.⁽¹⁾

(1) ibid 4/352, 4/6.

As well as this, one can seek a cure with the authenticated Prophetic Ar-Ruqa (Prophetic invocations and traditions for curing illness). If the invocation is free from restraints, it will be the best cause of finding a remedy and removing harm. It is the most useful cure, especially when one is insistent. It is also an enemy of the affliction itself, as it drives it away, cures it, prevents it to descend or alleviates it.⁽¹⁾ The Prophet ﷺ said, “The invocation benefits what Allah has decreed and what He will decree.” O servants of Allâh! Make invocation frequently.⁽²⁾ There is nothing that can prevent Allâh’s Decree except

(1) ibid 4/178, and (Al-Jawâbi Al-Kâfi) P. 21.

(1) See (Al-Jawâbi Al-Kâfi) P. 25-22.

(2) Collected by At-Tirmidhî 5/552, Al-Hâkim 1/670, Aḥmad 5/234 and Al-Albânî declared it hasan. See Saḥîḥ Al-Jâmi’ 3/151 No. 3403.

invocation, and there is nothing that can prolong life except goodness.⁽¹⁾

But it should be understood that the verses, forms of remembrance, invocations and seeking refuge with Allâh, with that which will be recited over the patient, are useful and provide a cure, but they require that the curer (who recites the verses or invokes) should firmly believe what he says. So if the cure does not occur, it is related to three reasons; the curer did not firmly believe in what he said, the patient did not accept what the curer said over him, or there was a strong reason for the remedy being prevented. Seeking a cure with the Ar-Ruqa requires two matters:

(1) Collected by Al-Hâkim 3/548, At-Tirmidhî 4/448 and Al-Albânî declared it hasan. See Silsilat Al-Hâdîth As-Sahîh 1/76 No. 154.

The first one is related to the patient, and the second is related to the curer. The patient should have strong faith and firm trust in Allâh ﷻ. He should believe that the Noble Qur'ân is a Mercy for all the believers, and the heart and the tongue should accept the correct way of seeking refuge, as it is a kind of struggle (Jihâd), which requires two things to be victorious:

Firstly, the weapon must be solid and effective. Secondly, the holder of the weapon should be strong. If one of these does not exist, what will happen? Or if the two things go astray, how can it be possible to have the cure, while the heart is free of monotheism, trust in Allâh, piety or confidence in Allâh?

The second matter is related to the curer, or the one who seeks a remedy with the Qur'ân and Sunnah, it also requires what was mentioned above.⁽¹⁾

So Ibn at-Teen رحمته الله said, “Ar-Ruqa by seeking refuge with Allâh and His Beautiful Names is the spiritual medicine. If the curer is Righteous, the remedy will happen with Allâh's will.)⁽¹⁾

Scholars agree that Ar-Ruqa is permissible, when the following three conditions are achieved:

1. Ar-Ruqa should be sought with the words of Allâh, His beautiful Names or the words of the Prophet ﷺ.
2. It should be in Arabic or what can be understood in other languages.
3. It must be firmly believed that the Ar-Ruqa is not a remedy in itself, but that the remedy is obtained with

(1) Fath Al-Bârî 10/196

Allâh's omnipotence,⁽¹⁾ and that Ar-Ruqa is a reason for its occurrence and is a means of invocation.

Because of the importance of this subject, I have summarized the two books (Remembrance & Invocation) and (Qur'ânic Recitation & Prophetic Invocations over the Patient (Ar-Ruqa)) and I added some invocations and useful information with the will of Allâh. So I asked Allâh by His Beautiful Names and His lofty Attributes to make this work for His sake alone, to benefit me with it, as well as whoever reads or publishes it, and he who facilitates its publishing and all the Muslims. Allâh is the Patron for all things and the Most Powerful. And may Allâh send His peace and blessings upon Muḥammad, all his family, his Companions and all those who follow them in a good way.

Sa'eed Ibn 'Ali Ibn Wahf Al-Qahtâni

1. The remedy for sorcery

The Divine remedy for sorcery is divided into two categories:

The first category: that which prevents sorcery such as:

1. Performing all obligations and duties, avoiding what is prohibited and repenting from all sins.
2. Increasing in one's reading of the Noble Qur'ân, so that the Muslim always reads a number of verses daily.
3. Protect himself with invocations, seeking refuge with Allâh and the authenticated forms of remembrance. Such as:

« بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الَّذِي لَا يَضُرُّ مَعَ اسْمِهِ شَيْءٌ فِي
الْأَرْضِ وَلَا فِي السَّمَاءِ وَهُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ »

(Bismillâhî alladhî la yadurrû ma'a ismihî shai'un fil-ardî wa-la fis-samâ'i wa huwa as-Samî'û al-'Alîm)

“In the Name of Allâh in whose Name nothing is harmed in the earth or in the heavens, and He is the All-Hearing, the All-Knowing.” Three times in the morning and in the evening,⁽¹⁾ reciting the verse of the Kursî at the end of the prayers, before sleeping, in the morning and in the evening,⁽¹⁾ reciting Sûrat Al-Ikhlâs, (Sûrat, 112), Sûrat Al-Falaq, (Sûrat, 113), and Sûrat An-Nâs, (Sûrat, 114), three times in the morning and in the evening. As well as saying:

« لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ ، لَهُ الْمُلْكُ
وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَهُوَ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ »

(La ilâha illa Allâhû, wahdahû la sharîka lahu, lahul-mulkû wa-lahul-hamdû, wa huwa 'ala kulli shai'in qadîr)

“There is no god but Allâh who has no partner, to Him belongs all sovereignty and praise and He is over all things, omnipotent.”⁽¹⁾

He should persevere in reciting the remembrances of the day and evening, at the end of each prayer, the invocations before sleeping and when waking up, invocations for leaving and entering the home, invocation of entering and leaving the mosque and invocation for anyone who saw an afflicted person, and a lot of other invocations in accordance to many situations, times, and places. The second category: the remedy for sorcery after it has already occurred.

It is divided into four kinds:

The first kind: removing and nullifying the sorcery, if its place is known, by using authentic and lawful methods. This is the most useful way to cure the affected person.⁽¹⁾

The second kind: the authentic Ruqiya.⁽²⁾ Such as:

A. Grinding seven green leaves of the Mujrimûn)

“And Fir‘aun (Pharaoh) said: “Bring me every well-versed sorcerer.” And when the sorcerers came, Mûsâ (Moses) said to them: “Cast down what you want to cast!” Then when they had cast down, Mûsâ (Moses) said: “What you have brought is sorcery, Allâh will surely make it of no effect. Verily, Allâh does not set right the work of Al-Mufsidûn (the evil-doers, corrupters).” And Allâh will establish and make apparent the truth by His Words, however much the Mujrimûn (criminals, disbelievers, polytheists, sinners) may hate it.”

“They said: “O Mûsâ (Moses)! Either you throw first or we be the first to throw?” (Mûsâ (Moses)) said: “Nay, throw you (first)!” Then behold, their ropes and their sticks, by their magic, appeared to him as though they moved fast. So Mûsâ (Moses) conceived fear in himself. We (Allâh) said: “Fear not! Surely, you will have the upper hand. “And throw that which is in your right hand! It will swallow up that which they have made. That which they have made is only a magician’s trick, and the magician will never be successful, to whatever amount (of skill) he may attain." So the magicians fell down prostrate. They said: "We believe in the Lord of Hârûn (Aaron) and Mûsâ (Moses). (Ta-Ha, 65-70)

After reciting these verses on the water, the patient should drink some of it and wash himself with the remainder, so the sorcery will be removed, by Allâh's will. If it is necessary to do this another time, there is no harm and it can be done until the problem is removed. These methods were tried out several times, and were found to be useful. It is also very useful for the one who is unable to have sex with his wife.⁽¹⁾

These refuges, invocations, supplications and Ar-Ruqya are used to cure sorcery, the evil eye, the devil's touch and all diseases. These are useful and comprehensive Ar-Ruqya, by Allah's will.

There are also medicines that are composed of plants and grass. is a natural medicine, which can be used for washing, cleansing and perfuming.⁽¹⁾

2. Remedy for the evil eye

The remedy for the evil eye is divided into three categories:

The first category: refers to preventing it from happening. It is also divided into three kinds.

1. Fortifying oneself by remembering Allâh, making invocations and using the legitimate Ar-Ruqya, as the first kind of remedy.

2. Whoever is afraid of being inflicted with the evil eye - if he sees in his self, his wealth, his offspring, his siblings or what is admirable, should invoke Allâh to bless what he fears.

(مَا شَاءَ اللَّهُ لَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللَّهِ اللَّهُمَّ بَارِكْ عَلَيْهِ)
 (Mâ shâ'a Allâh, la quwwata illa billâh, Allâhumma bârik 'alaihi)

The Prophet ﷺ said, “If any of you sees for his brother what pleases him, he should ask this blessing for him.”⁽¹⁾

3. Concealing the beauty of what he fears the evil eye will affect.⁽¹⁾

The second category: refers to the remedy after the evil eye has already taken affect. It is divided into four kinds:

1. If the person, who had the evil eye, is known, he should perform ablution, then the affected person should wash with that water.⁽²⁾

2. The affected person should read a lot of Sûrat Al-Ikhlâs, (112), Sûrat Al-Falaq (113), Sûrat An-Nâs (114), Sûrat Al-Fatihah, the Verse of Kursî, the last two verses of Sûrat al-Baqarah and the legitimate Ar-Ruqya and invocations with spitting lightly on one's hand and wiping over the affected part as in the second kind of remedy for sorcery from No. 1 to 11.

3. Reading on the water with spitting lightly, then the patient drinks some of it and pours the remainder over his body,⁽¹⁾ or reading on some oil then anointing the patient with it.⁽¹⁾ If the reading is on Zamzam water or rainwater, it will be better.

4. There is no objection to write some verses of the Qur'ân on some paper then wash it and the patient drinks⁽²⁾ this water. The verses are like the Opening Sûrat, the verse of Kursî, the last two verses of Sûrat al-Baqarah, Sûrat Al-Ikhâls (112), Sûrat Al-Falaq (113), Sûrat An-Nâs (114) and invocations for Ar-Ruqya, as in the second kind of remedy for sorcery from No. 1 to 11.⁽¹⁾

The third category: refers to the causes, which prevent the eye of the envier. They are:

1. Seeking refuge with Allâh from the evil of the envier.
2. Piety and Obeying the commands of Allâh. 'Obey Allâh then He will protect you.'⁽²⁾
3. Being patient with the envier and pardoning him, so the patient does not fight him, complain against him or threaten him.

(1) See P. 197-209 in this book.

(2) Collected by At-Tirmidhî. See Sahîh At-Tirmidhî 2/309.

4. Putting one's trust in Allâh. Indeed, the person, who puts his trust in Allâh, Allâh will suffice him.
5. The patient should not think about the envier and should not fill his heart with interest in him. And this is one of the most useful remedies.
6. Confidence in Allâh, faith in Him and seeking His blessing.
7. Repentance from sins, because sins weaken you in the face of your enemies.

﴿ وَمَا أَصَابَكُمْ مِنْ مُصِيبَةٍ فَبِمَا كَسَبَتْ أَيْدِيكُمْ وَيَعْفُوا عَنْ كَثِيرٍ ﴾

“And whatever of misfortune befalls you, it is because of what your hands have earned. And He pardons much. (See the Qur'ân Verse 35:45). (Ash-Shûra, 30)

8. Giving charity and doing good deeds have a great effect on preventing the evil eye.

9. Removing the malice of the envier, the oppressor and the wrong doer by giving charity. So the more charity, the less malice. The envier should be advised and be treated compassionately. And it is hoped that Allâh will have mercy on him.

10. Have real faith and sincerity in the Almighty, the All Wise and call upon Him by His name knowing that nothing hurts or benefits anyone in the earth or the heavens except by His will. He, the Almighty is the holder of everything and He is creator of the causes of all things, so Faith is the greatest refuge with Allâh that he, who enters, will be saved.

These are ten causes that prevent the evil eye, the envier and the sorcerer.⁽¹⁾

3. Remedy for the devil's touch

The remedy of the person whose body has been entered by the Jinn, is divided into two categories:

The first category: refers to protection

(1) See Baddâ'i' Al-Fawâ'id by Ibn Al-Qayyim 2/138-245.

before this happens. Fulfilling all duties and obligations, avoiding the prohibited deeds, repenting from sins, protecting oneself with invocations, remembering Allâh and seeking refuge with Him are the best ways of preventing this problem.

The second category: It refers to the remedy after the Jinn has entered the person.

The remedy will occur to the Muslim whose heart agrees with his tongue (as proof of faith). The greatest remedy is with Ar-Ruqya. By reading the Opening Sûrat (Al-Fatihah)⁽¹⁾, the verse of

(1) See Sunan Abû Dawûd 4/13-14, Aḥmad 5/210 and Silsilat Al-Aḥadith as-Sahihah No. 2028.

Al-Kursi, the last two verses of Sûrat al-Baqarah, Sûrat Al-Ikhlâs (112), Sûrat Al-Falaq (113), and Sûrat An-Nâs (114) with lightly spitting on the affected person and repeating this act three times or more. It is also preferable to recite any verses of the Qur'ân, because the whole Qur'ân is a remedy for what is in the chests; a remedy and a Mercy to the believers.⁽¹⁾ The remedy is also with Ar-Ruqya and invocations as well as the remedy for sorcery (the second and the third categories).⁽²⁾ This remedy requires two matters:

(1) See Al-Fathh Ar-Rabâni, Musnad Ahmad 17/183.

(2) See P. 197 - 209 in this book.

The first one is related to the affected person. It depends on the strength of his psyche, his confidence in Allâh, and his truly seeking refuge with Allâh, to which the heart and the tongue testify.

The second is related to the curer. He should be righteous like the patient. The good weapon is only as good as the one who uses it.⁽¹⁾

It is better to make the call to prayer into the ears of the patient, because the devil takes flight when hearing the call to prayer.⁽¹⁾

4. The remedy for psychosis⁽²⁾

The best remedies for the psychotic diseases are:

1. Guidance and faith. Aberration and disbelief are the main causes of this problem.

(1) See Fath Al-Hâqq Al-Mubîn for the remedy of epilepsy, sorcery and the evil eye P. 112, and Al-Bukhârî No. 574.

(2) See Zâd Al-Ma'âd P. 2/23-28, and Al-Wasâ'il Al-Mufîdah lil-Hayâti As-Sa'îdah by Abdur-Rahmân Ibn Naser As-Sa'di.

2. The light of faith, which Allâh throws into the heart of His servant, is combined with good deeds.
3. Useful knowledge. The more knowledge, the more solace.
4. Repentance from all sins, returning to Allâh's path, loving Him, having confidence in Him and worshipping Him.
5. Remembering Allâh at all places and times, as remembrance has a great effect on the malaise, provides ease and removes worry and sadness.
6. Dealing with people in a good way and showing benevolence to them, as the generous are more delightful in the sight of the people.

7. Bravery, because the brave person is always cheerful and open-minded.
8. Removing the vices of the heart, which lead the heart to be intolerant and afflicted, such as: envy, abhorrence, rancor, hostility, enmity and oppression. It is authenticated that the Prophet ﷺ was asked about the best person, he said, "Whoever has a good heart and a reliable tongue." They said, "We know the meaning of the reliable tongue, but what is the meaning of the good heart?" He said, "It is the pious and pure heart, in which there is no sin, oppression, rancor or envy."⁽¹⁾

9. Ceasing to be over indulgent concerning imagining, talking, hearing, socializing, eating and sleeping. Ceasing to be over indulgent in these acts is one of the causes of the cure of this malaise, finding ease and removing worry and sadness.
10. Keeping oneself busy with a useful hobby or work, as it diverts the heart from what worries it.

(1) Collected by Ibn Mâjah No. 4216. See Sahîh Ibn Mâjah 2/411.

11. One must take interest in the task at hand, not in the future or the past. In this way, the servant strives for what benefits his religion and his life, asking his Lord to help him, and putting his trust in Allâh. That will remove worry and sadness.
12. Learning from those who are less fortunate or who have not found a remedy, and not concentrating on those who have more sustenance or relief than you.
13. Forgetting previous afflictions, which cannot be removed. It is necessary that you do not think about them.

14. If a person is afflicted, he should seek to lighten this calamity, so he should at least, appreciate the matter, and resist it as much as possible.
15. Maintaining a sense of bravery and tranquility in the heart, and overcoming worry, illusions and false impressions, which are the result of bad thoughts and anger. It is important that the person does not concentrate on what he has lost or on what is happening. The best thing is to give the whole matter to Allâh! the Almighty, apply useful cures, and ask Allâh for forgiveness and a good remedy.

16. Keeping confidence in Allâh and reliance on Him, because he who puts his trust in Allâh, will not be affected by illusions.
17. The good minded person knows that his happy life and tranquility are very short, so it is necessary to not further shorten his life by worrying or struggling against his destiny.
18. If one is afflicted, he shall look at the other favors that Allâh bestowed upon him. In this comparison he will clarify the favors and graces he has received from Allâh, as well as comparing what he fears to happen and the good expectations he has. He should not allow far expectations to become unbearable. In this way, his worry and fear will be removed.

19. It is necessary to know that the harm and evil words of people will not hurt him. Nothing will hurt him without the permission of Allâh, so he does not have to direct his mind to prevent them from hurting him.
20. He should turn his thought to what benefits his religion and his life.

21. The true Muslim should not seek a reward or thanks for his good deeds or his benevolence, except from Allâh. He should know that all good deeds are between him and his Lord, so he does not care about being thanked for a kind act. Allâh ﷻ says:

﴿ إِنَّمَا نَطْعِمُكُمْ لِرُوحِ اللَّهِ لَا نُرِيدُ مِنْكُمْ جَزَاءً وَلَا شُكْرًا ﴾

“We feed you seeking Allâh’s Countenance only. We wish for no reward, nor thanks from you.” (Al-Insân, 9)

22. Striving to do useful things, and not paying attention to harmful concerns. One's mind should not be focused on them.
23. Completing tasks immediately and being devoted to prospective tasks, so that he will be active and have a great ability to think and work.
24. Choosing useful and important actions, particularly, those that he really wants. He should seek help from Allâh to do so and ask for advice. If the matter is not achieved, he should put his trust in Allâh and continue.

25. Acknowledging all the blessings from Allâh ﷻ, because acknowledging these blessings removes worry and sadness and urges one to thank Allâh for these favors and blessings.
26. Dealing with one's spouse, relatives, and everyone you have a relation with, in a good way. If you know, but conceal the faults and qualities of others, the relation will continue and the hearts will be comforted. The Prophet ﷺ said, "The believing man never oppresses a believing woman, because if he found some bad behavior in her, he would be satisfied with another good part of her character.” (1)

27. Invoking Allâh to enable you to attain righteousness and do all good acts:

« اللَّهُمَّ أَصْلِحْ لِي دِينِي الَّذِي هُوَ عِصْمَةٌ
أَمْرِي ، وَدُنْيَايَ الَّتِي فِيهَا مَعَاشِي ، وَآخِرَتِي

“O Allâh! Recommend my religion, which is my whole matter, and amend for me my world in which there is my sustenance, and amend for me my Hereafter, to which is my return, and make the life provide me with every goodness and make death a rest from every evil.”⁽¹⁾

« اللَّهُمَّ رَحْمَتَكَ أَرْجُو فَلَا تَكِلْنِي إِلَى

28. Jihâd in Allâh’s cause. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Strive your utmost in the cause of Allâh, indeed striving in the cause of Allâh is a gate of the gates of paradise with which He saves from worry and sadness.”⁽¹⁾

These are the causes and methods of obtaining the remedy for psychotic diseases and the best remedy for psychological anxiety is for those who understand them and act sincerely. Some scientists have treated a lot of psychological diseases, and Allâh provided great benefits through them.⁽²⁾

5. The remedy for ulcers and wounds

It is reported that the Prophet ﷺ said, “If someone suffers from an ulcer or a wound, he should say the following words, and the reporter of the Hâdîth, (Sufyan) put his forefinger on the earth then raised it and said:

« بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ تُرْبَةٌ اَرْضِنَا بِرِيقَةٍ بَعْضِنَا لِيُشْفَىٰ بِهِ
سَقِيمُنَا يَا ذن رَبَّنَا »

(Bismillâhî turbatû arđina, beriġatî ba'dina, liyushfâ saġîmuna, bi-idhnî rabbina)

“In the name of Allâh is our ground and with our spit, our patient will be cured, by the will of our Lord.”⁽¹⁾

The meaning of this Hadîth: one should take some saliva with his finger, then put it on the ground, so that some dust hangs onto his finger, then he should wipe it over the wound or over the patient, while saying the preceding invocation. ⁽²⁾

3. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whenever a servant is afflicted by a calamity then says:

﴿ إِنَّا لِلَّهِ وَإِنَّا إِلَيْهِ رَاجِعُونَ اللَّهُمَّ أَجْرُنِي فِي مَصِيبَتِي وَأَخْلِفْ لِي خَيْرًا مِنْهَا ﴾

14. The remedy for anger

The Remedy for anger has two methods:

The first method: is protection from it.

This involves the causes of anger. Some of these causes are: pride, self-conceit, arrogance, unpleasant desire, untimely kidding, joking, etc.

The second method: is related to the remedy after anger is felt. It is as follows:

1. Seeking refuge with Allâh from Satan.

2. Performing ablution.
3. Changing the state of the angry person: sitting down, going outside, ceasing to talk, etc.
4. Remembering what was reported about the reward for suppressing anger, and what was reported about the evil results of anger.⁽¹⁾

Allâh ﷻ says with regard to honey:

لِلنَّاسِ إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً لِّقَوْمٍ يَتَفَكَّرُونَ﴾

The remedy for the diseases of the heart

1. The pure heart: it refers to the person who will be saved in the Hereafter, because he comes to his Lord with a pure heart. Allâh ﷻ says:

﴿ يَوْمَ لَا يَنْفَعُ مَالٌ وَلَا بَنُونَ ﴿٨٨﴾ إِلَّا مَنْ آتَى اللَّهَ بِقَلْبٍ سَلِيمٍ ﴾

“The Day whereon neither wealth nor sons will avail, Except him who brings to Allâh a clean heart (clean from Shirk (polytheism) and Nifâq (hypocrisy))” (Ash-Shu‘arâ’, 88-89)

The pure heart is that which is saved from any desire that may dissent from Allâh’s commands, and from any suspicion that may oppose the truth, so it would be saved from slavery to anything except Allâh and from the arbitration of anyone except the Messenger of Allâh ﷺ. Briefly, the pure heart is that which is saved from associating a partner with Allâh ﷻ, and its worship is sincere for Allâh alone. As well as its will, inclination, trust, repentance, allegiance, fear, hope and its deeds all belonging to Allâh ﷻ, so if it loves, it will be out of love for the sake of Allâh, and if it hates, it will be out of hate for the sake of Allâh ﷻ. If it gives, it will give for the cause of Allâh ﷻ. If it deprives, it will deprive for the cause of Allâh ﷻ. So its interest, its love, its aims, its body, its deeds, its sleep, its awakening and its talking are all related to Allâh. Therefore talking about Allâh is the most desirable talk. And its thoughts hover about seeking the satisfaction and love of Allâh.⁽¹⁾ We ask Allâh to make our hearts like that!

2. The dead heart: it is the opposite of the first one. This heart does not know his Lord nor worship, nor love, nor seek His satisfaction. But it follows its desires and pleasures, even if these desires and pleasures deserve Allâh's displeasure. So in this way it worships other than Allâh, with its love, fear, will, desire, satisfaction, anger, glorification and humility. So if it hates, it will be out of hate for its desire. And if it loves, it will be out of love for its desire. If it gives, it will give in the cause of its desire. And if it deprives, it will deprive for its desire. Lower desire is its mother, vain appetite is its leader, ignorance is its driver and unawareness is its vehicle.⁽¹⁾ We seek refuge with Allâh from such a heart.

(1) See "Ighâthat Al-Lahfân min Masâ'id Ash-Shaytân" by Ibn Al-Qayyim 1/7, 73.

3. The diseased heart: it is a living heart, but it is diseased. So it has two components: the first one provides it one time and the other another time, and it follows whatever overcomes it. It contains the love of Allâh, believes in Him, is sincere to Him and puts its trust in Him, and this is its living component. But loving the (lower) desires, seeking them, envy, pride, self-conceit, spreading corruption in the earth with desire for leadership, hypocrisy, double-dealing and stinginess are the components of its destruction.⁽¹⁾ We seek refuge with Allâh from such a heart.

(1) ibid 1/9.

The remedy for all the diseases of the heart are included in the Qur'ân. Allâh ﷻ says:

(1) ibid 1/9.

﴿يَأْتِيهَا النَّاسُ قَدْ جَاءَتْكُمْ مَوْعِظَةٌ مِنْ رَبِّكُمْ وَشِفَاءٌ لِمَا فِي الصُّدُورِ وَهُدًى وَرَحْمَةٌ لِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ﴾

“O mankind! There has come to you a good advice from your Lord (i.e. the Qur’ân), and a healing for that in your breasts, - a guidance and a mercy (explaining lawful and unlawful things) for the believers.” (Yûnus, 57)

﴿وَنُنَزِّلُ مِنَ الْقُرْآنِ مَا هُوَ شِفَاءٌ وَرَحْمَةٌ لِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَلَا يَزِيدُ الظَّالِمِينَ إِلَّا خَسَارًا﴾

“And We send down from the Qur’ân that which is a healing and a mercy to those who believe (in Islâmic Monotheism and act on it), and it increases the Zâlimûn (polytheists and wrongdoers) nothing but loss.” (Al-Isrâ’, 83)

There are two kinds of diseases of the hearts:

The first kind is that man does not feel its pain at the same time. This pain is felt through ignorance, suspicion and doubt. This is more painful than the second one, but because of the corruption of the heart, the pain is not felt.

The second kind is that man feels pain at the same time, such as worry, melancholy, sadness and rage. These diseases may be cured with normal remedies like removing their causes and so on.⁽¹⁾

(1) ibid 1/44.

Curing the hearts is done with four things:

The first remedy: is the Noble Qur'ân. It is a remedy for what is in the breasts of man, like suspicion. It removes what is in the hearts of disbelief and polytheism, and the diseases of suspicion and lower desires. And it is a guidance for those who know the truth and act according to it. It is also a mercy for the believers for what they gain of immediate and later rewards:

﴿أَوْ مَنْ كَانَ مَيِّتًا فَأَحْيَيْنَاهُ وَجَعَلْنَا لَهُ نُورًا يَمْشِي بِهِ فِي النَّاسِ كَمَنْ مَثَلُهُ فِي الظُّلُمَاتِ لَيْسَ بِخَارِجٍ مِنْهَا﴾

“Is he who was dead and We gave him life and set for him a light whereby he can walk amongst men - like him who is in the darkness from which he can never come out? (Al-An‘âm, 122)

The second remedy: the heart requires three things:

- i. that, which preserves its strength. And it will be with faith, good deeds and seeking obedience.
- ii. Zeal to avoid all that is harmful. It will be done by avoiding all kinds of sins and all kinds of violations.
- iii. Protecting oneself from all harm. It will be done through repentance and seeking forgiveness.

The third remedy: is curing the heart from being seized by the self. And it will be done by following two methods: reckoning the self and contradicting its desires. There are two kinds of reckoning:

The first one is before doing the deed and has four contexts:

1. Is this deed premeditated?
2. Is doing this deed better than leaving it?
3. Is the purpose of doing this deed related to Allâh's cause?
4. Are there supporters and helpers for this deed, (if the deed requires supporters)? If the answer is (yes), you should do it, but if not, you should not do it.

The second kind is after it has been done. It has three kinds:

1. Reckoning the self about a duty pertaining to Allâh's rights that was not performed well. The rights of Allâh are like: sincerity, giving advice, and continuity of action, acknowledging His benevolence and generosity upon you and acknowledging your shortcomings.

2. Reckoning the self about every deed when leaving it was better than performing it.

3. Reckoning the self about every permissible deed or any usual action you make. In doing so, are you seeking the cause of Allâh and the Hereafter, so that you will be the winner, or are you seeking worldly gain, so that you will be the loser?

In summary, the person should reckon himself about his obligations. Then again after having completed them, if there is a shortcoming. Then reckoning himself about the prohibited things, and seeking to repent and seeking forgiveness from what he had committed, from what he knew and what he did not know.⁽¹⁾

(1) ibid 1/136.

The fourth remedy: is preventing the heart from being seized by Satan. Satan is the enemy of man. And man can be saved from Satan by what Allâh legislated concerning seeking refuge with Him. The Prophet ﷺ combined seeking refuge from both the evils of the self and devils as he said to Abû Bakr رضي الله عنه, "Say:

﴿ قُلِ اللَّهُمَّ فَاطِرَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ ، عَالِمِ
 الْغَيْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ ، رَبِّ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ وَمَلِيكُهُ ، أَشْهَدُ
 أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا أَنْتَ ، أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ شَرِّ نَفْسِي ،
 وَمِنْ شَرِّ الشَّيْطَانِ وَشَرِّكَهٖ ، وَأَنْ أَقْتَرِفَ عَلَى
 نَفْسِي سُوءًا أَوْ أُجْرَهُ إِلَى مُسْلِمٍ ﴾

(Qul Allâhumma fatira as-samâwâtî wal-ardi, 'âlimal-ghaibî wash-shahâda- tî, rabba kulli shai'in wa malîkahû, ashhadû alla ilâha illa anta, a'udhû bika min sharri nafsî, wa min sharri ash-Shaitânî wa sharakihî, wa an aqtarifa 'ala nafsî sû'an aw ajurrahû illa muslim)

“O Allâh, the Creator of the Heavens and the Earth, the Knower of the Unseen, and the Witness, the Lord of everything and its sovereignty, I bear witness that there is no god but You. I seek refuge with You from the evil of my soul and from the evil of the devil and his polytheism, and from committing evil against my soul and from dragging it to any Muslim.” Say this in the morning and evening and when you go to bed.”⁽¹⁾

Seeking refuge with Allâh, putting one's trust in Him and being sincere, prevent the devil from seizing a person.⁽²⁾

May Allâh praise and send peace upon His servant and Messenger Muḥammad, all his family, Companions and those who follow them to the Hereafter.
