Prophet Muhammad's biography for children

The Prophet - ﷺ - left for At'Taif.

The Prophet - ﷺ - left for At'Taif along with Zaid bin Harithah calling towards Allāh - The Exalted - .

They didn't answer his call, they hurt him, exiled him and stoned him until he was bleeding into his sandals.

So he turned away from them - ﷺ - returning towards Mecca.

And on his way he met 'Addās who was a Christian, he believed him and responded to his call.

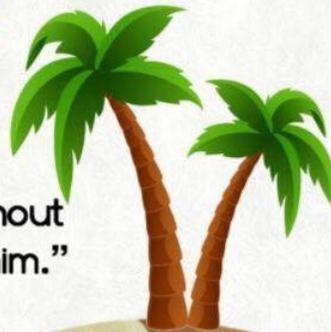

And on his way also a group of jinn was sent towards him who heard the Qur'an and became Muslims.

And on his way Allāh sent the angel of mountains to obey his order and if he wanted he would order the two mountains of Mecca to fall on them so he replied:

“No, rather I hope that Allāh will bring from their descendants people who will worship Allāh alone without associating partners with him.”

Bond of fraternity between the Muhājirīn and al Ansār

Then the Messenger of Allāh - صلى الله عليه وسلم - made bond of fraternity between the Muhājirīn and al Ansār in house of Anas bin Mālik

- They were 90 men, half of them were Muhājirīn and the other half were Ansār.

The bond was made on the bases of sharing; if one of the them passes away, his brother will inherit from him and not his blood relatives, this ruling was until the battle of Badr took place.

When Allāh revealed:

[And blood relations among each other have closer personalities in the Decree of Allah (regarding inheritance) than (the brotherhood of) the believers and the Muhajirun (emigrants from Makkah, etc.)]

The right of inheritance returned back to the blood relatives.
