In the Name of Allaah the most Kind the most Merciful

Shaykh Ibn Uthaymeen (رَحِمَهُ اللهُ)¹ said, "Sometimes, and I'm talking about myself [here], I look for the ruling concerning an issue in the books of fiqh that I have and in the Sunnah that I know but I don't find it, then I reflect on an ayah from the Qur'aan which suggests an idea about the ruling concerning that issue, so when I ponder over it, I find the ruling in the Qur'aan."²
